PRINTED here are the pictures of the most beautiful and attractive young woman in Washington and the nine close rivals for the unique distinction. The winner, "Miss Washington," was selected by a board of competent judges after examining hundreds of candidates. She is to be a guest of honor at a great pageant at Atlantic City September 7 and 8.

On the other pages of this section will be found the photographs of many of the other young women who were summoned before the judges in the semi-final elimination.
